TO THE PEOPLE OF TROY, MICHIGAN

My heartiest congratulations to you upon the opening of your new library. This should be a moment of great significance for the people of Troy as it marks the entry of man's greatest resource--that of his accumulated knowledge--into your lives.

As citizens of Troy you are to be commended for undertaking a project of this nature, for by doing so, you have ensured a living legacy for future generations. I urge all of you to make full use of your new facility; to make it grow, for it will serve you well.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Francis W. Sargent". The signature is written in a cursive style with a long horizontal stroke at the end.
