

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
SAN FRANCISCO

JOSEPH L. ALIOTO

April 6, 1971

Dear Children:

I am very happy to learn that your city has opened a new library.

Books can be one of the greatest pleasures you will ever have. Through them, you can learn about many things: you will read about histories of our world; the lives of famous people; in fact, just about anything that interests you can be found in a library.

Books can be your companion on rainy days. They will always be there. And when you want to read, a book will never say, "No, I don't want to."

Sincerely,

Joseph L. Alioto

Troy Public Library
5044 Rochester Road
Troy, Michigan 48084