

MRS. ERNEST HEMINGWAY, 27 EAST 65TH STREET, NEW YORK 10021

24th, March, 1971

Dear Mrs. Hart -

I hope the following may be of use to your library:

"Chief among the pleasures we give our friends and receive from them is the mutual exchange of ideas, impressions and conclusions. It will always be a stimulating and exciting process.

"A library is like a roomful of friends, each one with his own story or observations ready and waiting to be discovered. It offers lifelong friendship that never fails."

Best wishes -
Mary Hemingway